Newsletter / Nuusbrief: September 2016

THE PRESIDENT, NDAC COMMITTEE AND MEMBERS

Another year has come and gone for NDAC. The AGM and annual prize giving will be held at the club on 03rd September 2016. My sincere wish is that all members attend the AGM and the prize giving, which promises to be a grand function.

On a personal note my sincere thanks to my entire committee for their support and assistance in running the club for the past 3 years. I will no longer be standing as the club chairman at the AGM, but will be available for the treasurer portfolio again. To the new chairman and committee may God lead and guide us all in making the right decisions in the coming year.

This year has had some great highlights with some of our anglers doing themselves, NDAC and Mpumalanga very proud while fishing at some interprovincial tournaments. Gert Conradie, Renier Slabbert & Johan vd Walt won the game fish nationals held at Shelly Beach. Baie geluk manne.

Our anglers were also very well represented in the various Mpumalanga teams selected. These anglers were Gert Conradie, Johan vd Walt, Renier Slabbert, Sam Botha & Jan Joubert. The members were selected to fish for SADSAA during last year were Edwin Freeman, Wayne Huddlestone & Jan Joubert. Henry de Pradines & Brad van Zyl were selected as Mpumalanga selectors at the past MDSAA AGM. Many congrats to all, you truly make NDAC a very proud club.

The angler of the month is Sean van Veijeren with a superb marlin caught. Baie geluk Sean.

The club house has also had a serious facelift during the past year, which has really made a huge improvement. Again thanks to all involved in these upgrades.

Yours in angling
Edwin Freeman

Heritage Day/Braai day is a South African public holiday celebrated on 24 September.

On this day, South Africans across the spectrum are encouraged to celebrate their culture and the diversity of their beliefs and traditions, in the wider context of a nation that belongs to its people.

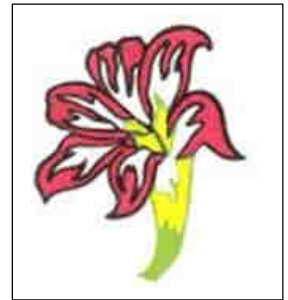

Nasionale Braaidag is vir elke Suid-Afrikaner 'n big deal. Dit is die een dag 'n jaar waar jy afkry by die werk net om te braai.

Golden trevally

The golden trevally, Gnathanodon speciosus (also known as the golden kingfish, banded trevally and king trevally), is a species of large marine fish classified in the jack and horse mackerel family Carangidae, and the only member of the genus Gnathanodon. The golden trevally is widely distributed throughout the tropical and subtropical waters of the Indian and Pacific Oceans, ranging from South Africa in the west to Central America in the east, extending to Japan in the north and Australia in the south. The species predominantly occupies inshore waters where it inhabits both reef and sandy substrates. The golden trevally is easily distinguished from its relatives by its fleshy, rubbery lips and unique colouration, which ranges from bright yellow with black bars as a juvenile to a golden-silvery colour as an adult. It is known to grow to 120 cm in length and 15 kg in weight. The golden trevally schools as a juvenile, often closely following larger objects including sharks and jellyfish. The species uses its protractile jaws to suck out prey from the sand or reef, and consumes a variety of fish, crustaceans and molluscs. Spawning aggregations gather at night at different times of the year throughout its range. The golden trevally is a considerable constituent of several Middle Eastern fisheries and being of minor importance to many others, with a worldwide annual catch of 1187 t to 3475 t recorded between 2000 and 2010. The golden trevally is a popular gamefish, taken by bait, lure, fly and also spear throughout its range. Several Asian countries currently farm the fish in caged aquaculture. Due to their brilliant colouration, juveniles are popular in marine aquaria.
